NAUSET TIDES

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones, together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1–8

From Fragments

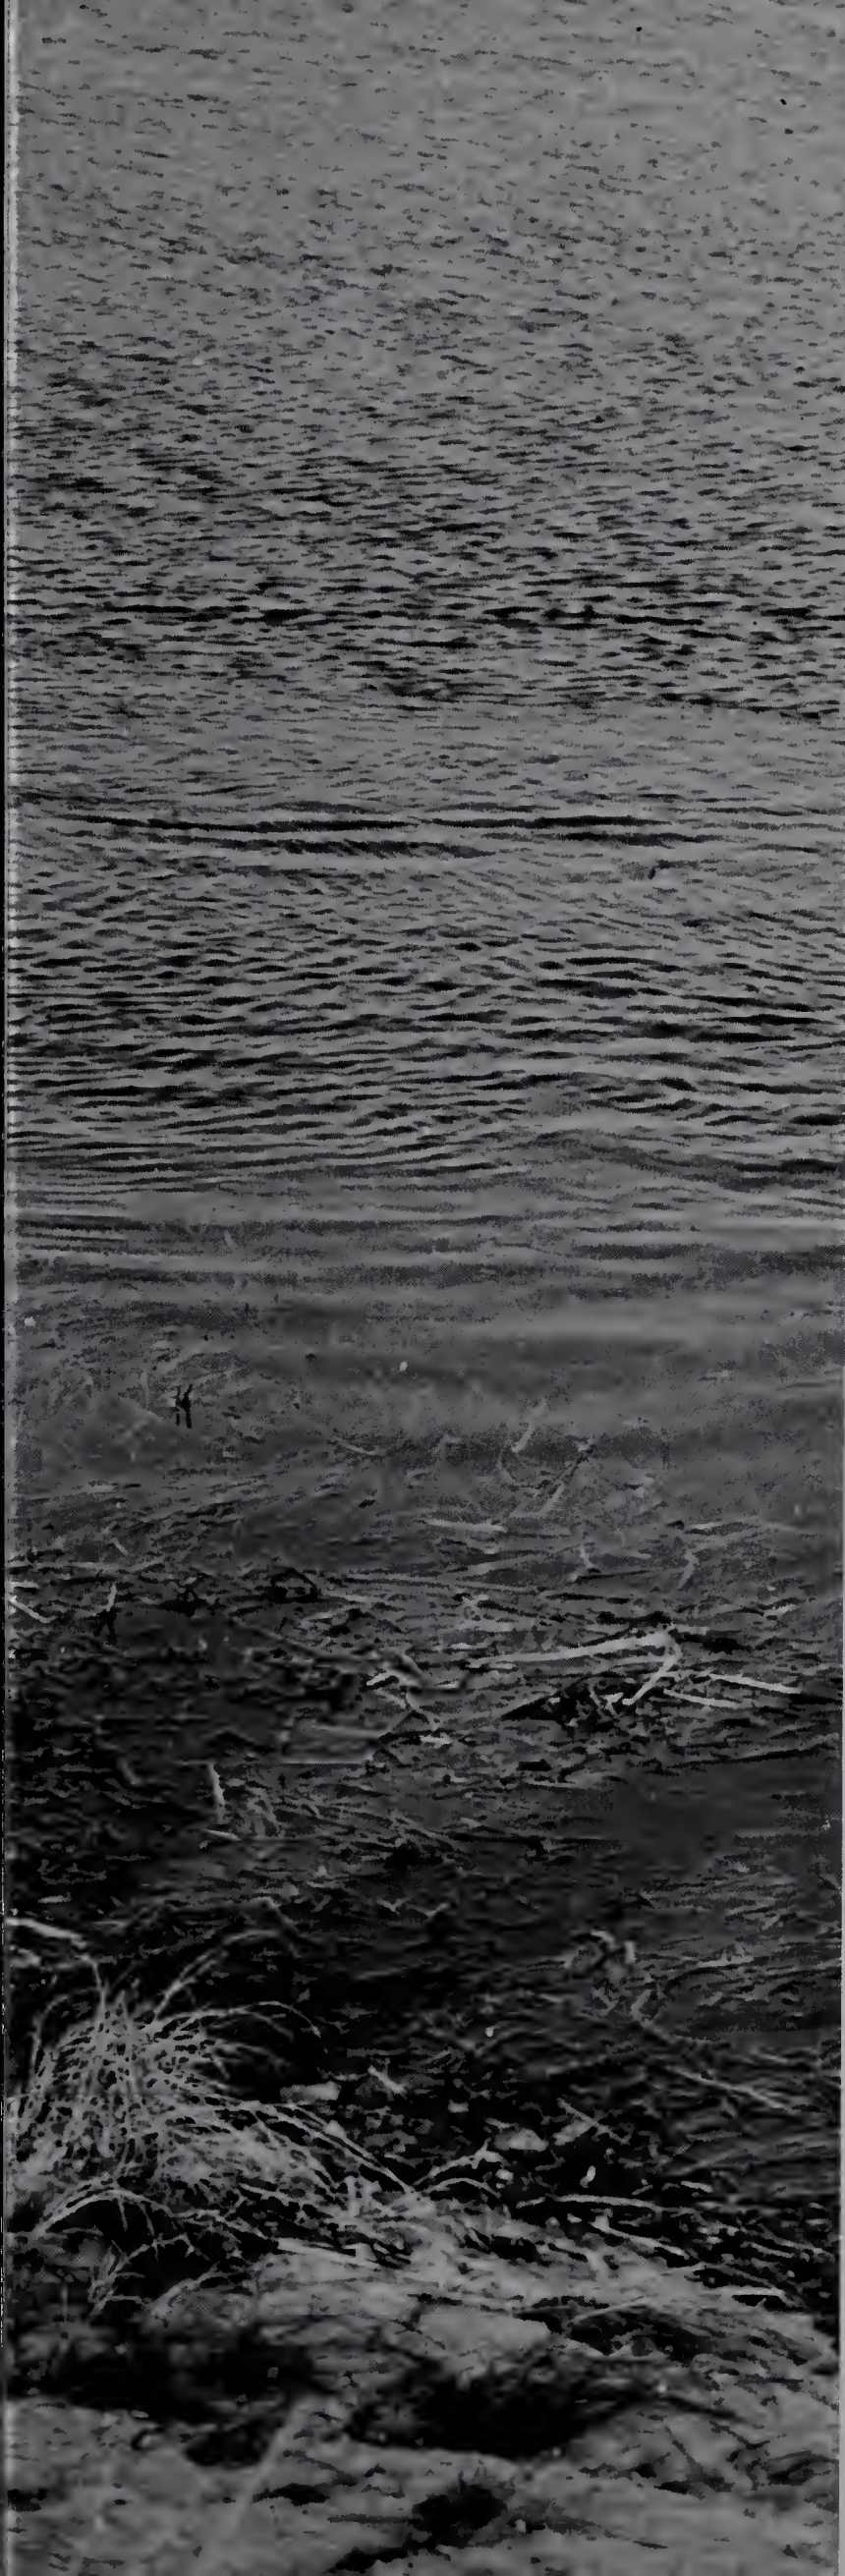

Let me go where'er I will
I hear a sky-born music still;
It sounds from all things old,
It sounds from all things young,
From all that's fair, from all that's foul,
Peals out a cheerful song.

'Tis not in the high stars alone,
Not in the cups of budding flowers,
Nor in the redbreast's mellow tone,
Nor in the bow that smiles in showers,
But in the mud and scum of things
There alway, alway, something sings.

Ralph Waldo Emerson

SPRING

Spring, with that nameless pathos in the air
Which dwells with all things fair,
Spring, with her golden suns and silver rain,
Is with us once again.

I Michele Nichols leave my great note-taking ability to Mr. O'Brien, as he is in desperate need of it. I Audrey Nickerson leave my high-pitched laugh to Jo-Ann Gage so that she may be heard. I Randy Nickerson leave wondering how come??? I Kathy Novotny leave Mrs. Emerson my fur-trimmed coat. I Robert O'Brien leave my hockey skates to Mr. Miller. I Vincent Ollivier leave the Nauset Regional Senior Student Council in the hands of next year's capable baby-sitter. I Harold Olson leave the name SURGE and my silver spoon to Mr. O'Brien. I Joe Pacino leave Danny Bechar a pair of healthy Jordanian slave girls. I Daniel Parkington leave. I David Parkington leave Mr. Kalinick my broken guitar strings and my desert boots to Danny since he stole them anyway. I Gary Pease leave with all my knowledge about what to do with boats. I Steve Peno leave my skiis to Mr. Miller hoping that he gets more use out of them than I did. I

Debbie Peterson leave Doc Brooks, the great white buzzard, picking his apples from the schools corridors. I Arna Pickard leave my crutches to Doc Brooks. I Steve Pierce leave, faster than a speeding bullet! I Linda Putnam leave for Conn. and leave behind my immeasurable and uncoordinated gymnastic ability to Mary Coombs and Kathy Richards. I Clayton Reynard leave bounding for bigger and better basketball courts. I Randy Richter leave a case of beer, some dirty jokes, and a photograph of me lifting my weights. I Linda Rockwell leave smiling for once. I Chris Rodgers Leave for Huntley's Gulf Station. I Karen Roza leave my ability to write 1,000 word compositions in one hour to Mr. Gray. I Debbie Sallee leave Major Feeney to keep her quiet office in perfect order. I Sandy Sanders leave in hopes of cooking my way to fame and fortune. I Denise Saulnier leave all my problems to the guidance counselor. I Leslie Shovelier leave hoping that everyone now believes that I AM NOT A SOPHOMORE. I Dale Sipple leave to next year's business editor and Mr. Gray all my worries about the money. I Gale Snider leave in my red truck for good. I Leonard Sparrow leave an elf or two to haunt these corridors; the good of heart need not fear them. I Pam Sparrow leave one homemade french fry to Mr. Bechar. I Robert Spear leave all my Freudian undertones to Mrs. Emer-

"For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed."

Gibran

"An ocean is forever asking questions and writing them aloud along the shore".
Edward Robinson

"Our snow-storms as a rule
Aren't looked on as man-killers; and although
I'd rather be the beast that sleeps the sleep
Under it all, his door locked up and lost,
Than the man fighting it to keep above it,
Yet think of the small birds at roost and not
In nests. Shall I be less than they are?"

No dust have I to cover me,
My grave no man may show;
My tomb is this unending sea,
And I lie far below.
My fate, O stranger, was to drown;
And where it was the ship went down
Is what the sea-birds know.
Edward Robinson

"But now when the noon is no more, and riot is rest,
And the sun is a-wait at the ponderous gate of the West,
And the slant yellow beam down the wood-aisle doth seen
Like a lane into heaven that leads from a dream,—"

Sidney Lanier

As a fond mother, when the day is o'er
Leads by the hand her little child to bed,
Half willings, half reluctant to be led,
And leaves his broken playthings on the floor,
Still gazing at them through the open door,
Nor wholly reassured and comforted
By promises of others in their stead,
Which, though more splendid, may not please him more;
So Nature deals with us, and takes away
Out playthings one by one, and by the hand
Leads us to rest so gently, that we go
Scarce knowing if we wish to go or stay,
Being too full of sleep to understand
How far the unknown transcends the what we know.
Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

"We can easily forgive a child who is afraid of the dark. The real tragedy of life is when men are afraid of the light."
